

COURTNEY FINNEGAN SEPIC, MS, RN, FNP

6 Aspen Lane
Stratham, NH 03885
(603) 343-7778

EDUCATION

Georgetown University, Washington, DC
Master of Science, Family Nurse Practitioner
December, 1999
GPA: 3.6/4.0

Georgetown University, Washington, DC
Bachelor of Science, Nursing
May, 1997
Minor: Psychology
Nursing GPA: 3.4/4.0, Overall GPA: 3.0/4.0

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE – NURSE PRACTITIONER

York Pain Consultants, York, ME, January 2008-August 2009

Nurse Practitioner, Interventional Pain Center

- Evaluate patients in pain for the appropriate interventional procedure

Boston Orthopaedic and Spine Specialists, Boston, MA, March 2003-July 2008

Nurse Practitioner, Orthopaedic Spine

- Manage both inpatients and outpatients with operative and non-operative disorders of the spine in collaboration with an Orthopedic Spine Surgeon

Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, MA, May 2001-March 2003

Nurse Practitioner for the Orthopaedic Spine Surgery Service

- Manage both inpatients and outpatients with operative and non-operative disorders of the spine in collaboration with two Orthopedic Spine Surgeons

Brigham and Women's Hospital, Boston, MA, April 2001-August 2006

Nurse Practitioner, Emergency Department

- Evaluate, diagnose, and treat patients in the "Fast Track" area of the Emergency Department

Brigham and Women's Hospital, Boston, MA, December 2000-May 2001

Nurse Practitioner, Pre-Admitting Testing Department

- Evaluated patients pre-operatively for operative clearance

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, MA, December 2000-April 2001

Emergency Department Registered Nurse

- Cared for patients in the acute setting, a pediatric and adult Level 1 Trauma Center

Georgetown University Hospital, Washington, DC, August 1998-November 2000

Emergency Department Registered Nurse

- Directed patient care as a charge nurse in a pediatric and adult Level 1 Trauma Center
- Evaluated patient acuity using critical assessment skills as triage nurse
- Preceptor to a Georgetown University nursing student

Northwestern Memorial Hospital, Chicago, IL, September 1997-August 1998

Medical/Surgical Registered Nurse

- Served adults with both chronic and acute medical problems
- Trained as the diabetic educator representative of a medical unit

Georgetown University Hospital, Washington, DC, September 1995-April 1997

Nurse Technician

- Worked on a perinatal unit caring for both antepartum and postpartum women
- Responsible for fetal heart monitoring, discharge planning, and breastfeeding support

Congressman Meehan, Washington, DC, Fall 1996

Intern

- Worked in constituent relations, addressing political issues of concern to district citizens

Kennebunk Beach Improvement Association, Kennebunk, ME, Summers 1992-1997
Swim Instructor, Director of Swim Program Summer 1997

- Managed a team of eight swim staff employees catering to children ages 2-18

CONTINUING EDUCATION

- Registered Nurse First Assistant Course at Delaware County Community College 2007-2008
- Presented talks on Conditions of the Lumbar Spine to multiple primary care practices, nursing groups and peers in 2006-2007

CERTIFICATIONS/LICENSURE

Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP), May 2000, Certification #347407-22

Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS), October, 2008

Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS), October, 2008

Basic Life Support Provider (CPR), February, 2008

Registered Nurse (RN): Massachusetts # 229614

ABROAD EXPERIENCE

The American College in London, London, England, Summer 1996

- Studied the development of British Theatre through lectures and viewing productions

ACTIVITIES/INTERESTS

Family

- Married with a two year old son. We love the beach, traveling and playing in the yard.

Running

- Marine Corps Marathon 2000
- Chicago Marathon 1998

Georgetown University Field Hockey Team, Fall 1993, 1994

- Competed as a student athlete on a Division I Big East team